

Complaints Policy

Clover Hill VA Infant School and St Michael's VA Junior School aim to work in partnership with parents to deliver a high quality education and care for all children.

All schools in Norfolk want their pupils to be healthy, happy and safe, and to achieve. They recognise that parents play an important part in making this happen. Cooperation between parents, staff and governors leads to a shared sense of purpose and a good atmosphere in the school.

Each level of the procedure set out below offers the opportunity for concerns and complaints to be resolved as quickly as possible. (Reference to parents in these procedures includes parents, carers and guardians).

All concerns or complaints will be taken very seriously by the school. The school will adhere to this policy in seeking a successful resolution.

INFORMAL STAGE – LEVEL 1 and/or 2

All concerns or complaints will be dealt with initially at the informal stage of the school's complaints procedures.

Level 1 – informal

Parents should, in the first instance, make an appointment to speak to the Class Teacher. It is best to resolve issues at this point. What will happen?

- Concerns will initially be handled informally in a manner that offers the best way of resolving issues.
- The class teacher will offer an appointment to discuss the issue as quickly as possible, as this will give both parties time to talk about it calmly and politely without being interrupted.
- All parties involved are encouraged to offer their view of what would be a realistic resolution to the problem.
- It is important for all parties to remain calm and show a commitment to resolving the issues.

Level 2 – informal

Parents dissatisfied with the result of the discussions with the class teacher should ask for an appointment to meet with the Head Teacher. Both parties will discuss the issue and aim to seek a successful and realistic resolution to the problem.

If a resolution to the issue is proving difficult to find, the Head Teacher will speak to one member of the governing body about the issue. The governor will meet with the Head Teacher and parents to discuss the issue further with the aim of seeking a realistic and successful resolution to the problem.

If everyone involved is unable to resolve the issue then it may be necessary to ask for information or support from a Children's Services and/or Governor Support Service Representative. The issue that is the focus of the complaint will determine the person contacted.

What will happen?

- It is in everyone's interest, particularly the child or children, for concerns and complaints to be sorted out quickly and smoothly.
- Our aim is listen to parents' concerns and what they would like to see happen to resolve the problem. We hope to end discussions on a positive note with no bad feeling.
- The Head Teacher will write a letter to parents summarising what has been agreed regarding the issue.
- The advice from a Children's Services and/or Governor Support Service representative will be designed to help facilitate a resolution to the problem as quickly as possible.

We hope that most problems have been resolved by now. There will be no movement to the formal stage of the Complaints Policy until stages 1 and 2 have been completed.

FORMAL STAGE – LEVEL 3 and 4

Level 3a– formal complaint letter to Head Teacher

An issue that has not been resolved through the informal levels 1 and 2 can become an official complaint. Parents wishing to move to level 3 must write a formal letter of complaint to the Head Teacher.

The letter will need to set out clearly the issues which have previously been discussed and why the parent considers the issue to be unresolved. Head Teachers should consider the complaint and discuss a resolution with the complainant.

The Head Teacher should offer a resolution to the complainant in writing within 10 school days of receipt of the letter. If an earlier informal stage has involved a governor, then the complaint and the discussion of a resolution will also involve the same governor.

What will happen?

- An unresolved issue can now move to a formal complaint. This is a serious step to be taken. In consideration of future home/school relationships everyone concerned will need to negotiate an agreement and concentrate on finding a resolution to the issue.
- The Head Teacher will write a letter to parents summarising what has been agreed regarding the issue.

The decision that the Head Teacher has made as a result of the complaint does not become a complaint about the Head Teacher. If the complainant feels the complaint has not been resolved he/she should proceed to Level 4, a Governors' Complaints Panel.

Level 3b - Concerns or complaints specifically about the Head Teacher.

If the concern or complaint is specifically about the Head Teacher and is unable to be resolved at the informal stage, then it will be necessary for the complainant to formally complain to the Chair of Governors. The school will provide the Chair of Governor's name and the complainant should write to him or her at the school address marking the envelope 'urgent, private and confidential'. The Chair of Governors should acknowledge the complainant's letter in writing within 5 school days of receipt and contact a Children's Service and/or Governor Support Service representative for advice.

What will happen?

- An unresolved issue can now move to a formal complaint. This is a serious step to be taken. In consideration of future home/school relationships everyone concerned will need to negotiate an agreement and concentrate on finding a resolution to the issue.
- The Chair of Governors and a Children's Service and/or Governor Support Service representative will arrange to meet with parents as quickly as possible.
- All parties will discuss the issue with the aim of seeking a realistic and successful resolution.
- The Chair of Governors will write a letter to parents summarising what has been agreed regarding the issue.

Level 4 – Formal complaint requesting a Governors' Complaints Panel.

If a resolution has not been achieved at Level 3, complainants may wish to move to Level 4 of the formal complaints procedure. They will need to write a letter to the Chair of Governors to request that a Governors' Complaints Panel meets to hear the complaint. This formal complaint letter must be received within 10 school days of the last meeting with the Head Teacher or Chair of Governors concerning the issue. The complainant should write to the Chair of Governors at the school address marking the envelope 'urgent and confidential'. The letter will need to set out the complaint that has previously been formally discussed with the Head Teacher or Chair of Governors and show why the matter is not resolved. Chair of Governors will contact a Children's

Service and/or Governor Support Service representative for advice.

Time Scales:

Receipt of complainant's letter	Acknowledgement within 5 school days
Receipt of complainant's letter	Governors' Panel meeting within 15 school days (unless this goes into school holidays)
Written documentation sent to Governors' Panel Members and complainant and Head Teacher	5 school days before meeting.
Governors' Panel members decision communicated to all concerned	As soon as possible but within 10 school days of meeting.

Governors' Panel Meeting

Procedures Before the meeting:

The Chair of Governors should appoint a clerk to the Governors' Complaints Panel, acknowledge the complainant's letter in writing within 5 school days of receipt and arrange for a panel of governors to meet within 15 school days of receipt. It must be recognised that if the letter is received within 14 school days to the end of term it may not be possible to organise the governors' panel meeting. In this case the matter should be dealt with within 10 school days of the school reopening.

The Head Teacher should be given a copy of the complainant's letter and written documentation should be requested from the school. The clerk should send both the complainant's letter and the school documentation to the Governors' Complaints Panel members, complainant and Head Teacher (and anyone else involved in the meeting) at least 5 school days before the date of the meeting.

The complainant and Head Teacher will be invited to attend the Governor's Complaints Panel meeting to give a verbal statement in support of their documentation. Each of them can bring someone to support them if they wish.

At the meeting:

The complainant and Head Teacher (or his/her representative) should provide all the relevant information they wish and the Governors' Complaints Panel members should clarify any points. After the complainant and Head Teacher (or his representative) have provided all the information they wish, the chair will ask all parties to leave except the panel members and the clerk.

After the meeting:

The Governors' Complaints Panel will write to all concerned within 10 school days to explain their decision and suggest a resolution to the problem, if appropriate. The decision of the Governor's Complaints Panel is final.

The decision of the Governors' Complaints Panel will not be investigated. If, however, the complainant feels that the School and Governors have not followed the school's complaints procedure correctly he/she can contact a Children's Services Officer for assistance. In this case he/she should ring Customer Services on 0844 800 8001 who will arrange for an officer to get back to him/her.

Chapter 3, paragraph 14 of a Guide to the Law for School Governors states: under the Education Act 1996, paragraphs 496 and 497, anyone can complain to the Secretary of State for Education and Skills if he or she believes that a governing body is acting "unreasonably" or is failing to carry out its statutory duties properly. However, intervention can only occur if the governing body or the Local Authority has failed to carry out a legal duty or has acted "unreasonably" in the performance of a duty. Intervention would have to be expedient in the sense that there would have to be something that the Secretary of State for Education and Skills could instruct either party to do to put matters right.

What will happen?

Before the meeting:

- The Chair of Governors will set up a Governors' Panel meeting.
- The formal complaints letter should be passed to the vice-chair if the chair will be unable to receive the letter within 5 days.
- Members of the Governors' Complaints Panel should have no prior knowledge of the complaint and it is, therefore, unlikely that staff governors will be members of the panel.

At the meeting:

- The Complaints Panel must be made up of at least three members and a clerk.
- Although this is a formal meeting, every effort should be made to make it as informal as possible for all concerned.
- Everyone attending should be in the room at the same time
- Consideration may need to be given to the seating arrangements to make everyone feel equal and comfortable.
- The clerk should take notes of the meeting, listing who is present:
 - Governors, stating who is the Chair of the Governors'
 - Complaints Panel
 - Head Teacher (or his/her representative) and any other members of school staff
 - Parents and anyone accompanying them e.g. friend --
 - Clerk
- The chair of the Governors' Complaints Panel should open the meeting stating the purpose and the format of the meeting to clarify this to all in attendance.
- People present should introduce themselves stating their reason for being at the meeting.

- The chair of the Governors' Complaints Panel should request a verbal statement from the complainant in support of his or her written letter of complaint and why s/he feels the issue has not been resolved. The Governors' Complaints Panel members can ask questions to make sure they understand the issue from the parent's point of view.
- The chair of the Governors' Complaints Panel should request a verbal statement from the Head Teacher (or his representative) in support of his/her written account of the complaint and the steps taken to resolve the issue. The Governors' Complaints Panel members can ask questions to make sure they understand the issue from the Head Teacher's point of view.
- The members of the Governors' Complaints Panel should make sure they fully understand the issues and ask any further questions to clarify any points that are still not clear to them.
- The chair of the Governors' Complaints Panel must ask the complainant and the Head Teacher (or his representative) if they are satisfied that they have provided all the information they wanted or if there is something they wish to add and if they feel they have had a fair hearing.
- When the Governors' Complaints Panel members understand all the issues, the chair will ask all parties to leave except the panel members and the clerk.

After the meeting:

- The Governors' Complaints Panel members then discuss the issues in private and the clerk remains to record the decision.
- The Panel members will need to consider the information, come to a decision and suggest a way to resolve the issue taking into account the best interests of the child or children.
- When the Panel have reached a decision the Clerk will inform everyone concerned in writing as soon as possible, but in any event, within 10 school days of the panel meeting.

The decision of the Governor's Complaints Panel is final.

Once a Governor's Complaints Panel has heard a complaint and it is clear that correct procedures have been followed, that specific complaint cannot be reopened. If a request is received in this respect, the chair of governors should inform the complainant that the matter is closed.

Any complaints concerning the conduct of school staff will be handled in accordance with the schools internal disciplinary procedures. The details of such an investigation will remain confidential.

Some complaints regarding admissions, the curriculum or special educational needs are covered by statutory regulations. The Head Teacher or deputy Head Teacher can give information about these issues or advice can be sought from the Children's Services on 0344 800 8020.

After Schools Activities:

The governing body should ensure that any third party provider offering activities and services through the extended schools programme has their own complaints procedure in place. Governors would need to have a discussion around, and make a decision about, what happens when the third party provider's complaints process is exhausted and the matter is not resolved and whether it should then be referred to a Governors' Complaints Panel. This would ensure that the Governors are kept aware of complaints about provision.

Vexatious Complainants:

It is important to distinguish between people who make a number of complaints because they really think things have gone wrong, and people who are being difficult. Complainants can be frustrated and aggrieved and it is therefore important to consider the merits of the case rather than their attitude. Even though someone has made vexatious complaints in the past, it cannot be assumed that the next complaint is also vexatious. Each complaint must be considered as to whether it is vexatious or genuine. There is no way of avoiding evaluating each complaint.
