Dear Parents and Carers,

I am very pleased to say that school will be open as usual tomorrow!

You will have heard that the Prime Minister announced a second national lockdown last night. While non-essential shops, restaurants, pubs and other establishments will have to close on Wednesday night, schools are staying fully open.

I know that this will be a worrying time for you in lots of ways, but it is really important for our children that they maintain a sense of normality. Continuing to attend school, knowing that they are well looked after, well educated and with their friends is vital.

We look forward to seeing our children, as usual, tomorrow morning.

Yours sincerely,

HJ McCarney
