SUMMER FAYRE

We are collecting tombola items for the Summer Fayre.

If you have any of the following, please give them to the office or your class teacher: toiletries, new or nearly new toys, sweets and chocolates, stationery.

CONGRATULATIONS!

We are very proud that Anna was selected to be the school's Bishop's Champion this year.

Anna is a wonderfully kind and thoughtful member of our school and lives out our values every day.

Anna was invited to the Bishop's House and Garden and was presented with a certificate along with other Church School Champions.

Well done Anna!

NCC FAMILY LEARNING informal session at St. Michael's VA Junior School FREE of charge on Thursday 18th June

Adult Learning | Norfolk County Council | Department for Education | Ofsted Good Provider

Transition to Key Stage 2
St Michael's VA Junior School

THERE ARE STILL A FEW SPACES AVAILABLE

Moving from KS1 (Yrs.1&2) to KS2 (Yrs.36) can result in changes and questions.
NCC Family Learning is delighted to welcome you to St Michael's VA Junior School
for a free, informal session to offer tips and information that help you feel confident and ready for what's ahead.
We'll explore what the transition to Junior School looks like, as well as the rise in expectations of independence, and how reading, writing, grammar and Maths begin to gain depth and challenge.

St Michael's VA Junior School
Thursday 25th June
1:30pm to 3:00pm

 Free Museum Vouchers for all attendees **
